SECOND SESSION OF THE PREPARATORY COMMITTEE OF THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON TRADE AND EMPLOYMENT.

Corrigendum to Verbatim Report of 43rd meeting of Commission "A" on 18th August 1947 (Document E/PC/T/A/PV/3 of 18th August 1947)

Page 5: The first 4 lines of 2nd paragraph should read as follows:

"The application of this Agreement in matter of preferences was explained in documents circulated in this Commission and further clarified in a document which we have handed to certain delegations in the course of the Tariff negotiations, and I think if I read it rapidly it would explain what we mean:"

"It appeared to us at that time that to assert bluntly that we intended to maintain the full extent of the preferences set out in the law of 1924 might have sounded uncompromising and that it might have given the negotiations a very inauspicious turn"......

13th line: After "open" read as follows: "We knew what our rights were, and we were willing to sacrifice a good deal of them to the common objective of freer trade and general prosperity".

16th line: after the word "negotiations" read "and" instead of "in".

19th line: 5th word, read "value" instead of "values".

Page 9: 1st paragraph, 4th line, sentence beginning by "Of course", read: "Of course, to know all these products one should have to go very carefully through statistics or certain scientific works".

-----

Page 12: 4th paragraph, 6th line: After "we" add the word "are". Between "considered" and "extending" add the words "to be".

At the end of 4th paragraph, 11th line, after the word "scrutinised" add: "and opposed".

Page 40: Beginning of 3rd paragraph should read as follows:

"The other possibility which is the one which was explored"
