Second line from bottom of page - delete "that" wherever appearing - delete "if" and insert in its stead "If".

Page 14 - Third paragraph second line - Delete "those undertakings" insert in their stead "the undertakings". Insert after "undertakings" "in these four chapters".

Page 15 - Line 11 - Delete all words after "can" down to and including "could itself release" in the fourth last line. Insert instead of these words the following:-

"first of all make representations to the country in which the conditions of failure have arisen and then if necessary can seek the assistance of the Organization to investigate the matter and to arrange for consultation about it. The Organization could offer recommendations to the country concerned. Those recommendations could be accepted or rejected. If they are rejected the Organization has no powers of coercion. All it can do is to authorise the Member whose economy is impaired to suspend some or all of its obligations to some or all of the other Members. Now the Member adversely affected could itself release".

Page 16 - Line 1 - Insert after "country" "which is unable to carry out its obligations because of circumstances beyond its control".
