1. The name of the delegate of the Netherlands on page 24 should read "Mr. van Tuyll."

2. In the remarks attributed to Mr. van Tuyll (Netherlands) on pages 9, 10 and 11, the first paragraph on page 10 should read as follows:

"The Conference itself would, however, not be the best organ for the ultimate settlement of disputes resulting from its decisions or recommendations. These disputes should be referred for final regulation to an independent body unaffected by the atmosphere of the Conference itself. This viewpoint was contained in the statement made jointly by the delegations of the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg and France at the meeting in London."

In these same remarks the last sentence on page 11 should be amended to read: "It intended, however, to circulate a paper containing its views which would be submitted to the Sub-Committee or the Special Sub-Committee suggested by the delegate of Cuba."

3. In the remarks attributed to Mr. van Tuyll (Netherlands) on pages 24 and 25, the second sentence on page 24 should read as follows: "Only disputes between two or more Members of the Organisation would be submitted to the Court." In these same remarks, the last sentence of the first paragraph on page 25 should be amended to read: "This declaration, he continued, had been made by twenty-five members of the United Nations, among which were twelve members of the Preparatory Committee, including four of the Great Powers, and must not be invalidated or prejudiced by any decisions the Preparatory Committee might reach."
