The following note should be added:

3. On the suggestion by the Delegate for Czechoslovakia, it was decided to include in the Report a text to the effect that the arrangements referred to in Article 59, paragraph 1, and relating solely to the equitable distribution of commodities in short supply, should be short term arrangements of a transitional character.