The participating Observer of the International Monetary Fund has submitted the following amendments to his paper on Article 26:

Page 2. Delete at the end of line 2 and beginning of line 3 of paragraph 2 the words "to correct".

Lines 9 and 10 of the same paragraph should read: "restored and equilibrium was on a sound and lasting basis, the import restrictions".

In line 4, paragraph 3, the words "Such views seem to be" should read "Such use would be".

The last three lines of paragraph 3 should read: "in the version of the London draft was designed to tie in the policy that the membership as a whole can properly be expected to follow at all times".