Article 40, paragraph (b)

The submission of complaints by affected enterprises, even with the permission of the Member to whose jurisdiction they are subject, raises legal and practical objections.

The Delegation of France, therefore, proposes that the beginning of paragraph (b) of Article 40 should be worded as follows:

"Consider each written complaint submitted by any Member, or submitted, with the support of such Member, by any affected person, etc...."