Article 6. Functions

In addition to the functions provided for in the other Chapters of this Charter, the Organization shall have the following functions:

1. To collect, analyze and publish information relating to international trade, including information relating to commercial policy, business practices, commodity problems and industrial and general economic development;

2. To facilitate consultation among Members on all questions relating to the provisions of this Charter and to provide for the settlement of disputes growing out of the provisions of the Charter;

3. To make recommendations for, and promote international agreement on measures designed to improve the basis of trade and to assure just and equitable treatment for the enterprises, skills, capital, arts and technology brought from one country to another, including agreement on the treatment of foreign nationals and enterprises, on the treatment of commercial travellers, of commercial arbitration and on the avoidance of double taxation;

4. Generally, to consult with and make recommendations and, as necessary, furnish advice and assistance to Members regarding any matter relating to the purposes of the operation of the Charter, and to perform any other function appropriate to the purposes and provisions of this Charter;

/5. To co-operate
5. To co-operate with the United Nations and with other inter-governmental organizations for the purpose of furthering the attainment, with an economy of effort, of the economic and social objectives with the United Nations and the restoration and maintenance of international peace and security.

The Ad Hoc Sub-Committee furthermore recommends to make the following insertions and additions to the text of Articles 9 and 57 and to add a new Article 14 to Chapter IV:

Article 9 of the London Report (This is Article 8 as re-numbered and revised by the Legal Drafting Sub-Committee)

Change the first line to read: "The Members and the Organization shall participate in arrangements undertaken...."

Article 57 of the London Report

Add a new paragraph 3:
"3. The Organization may, in accordance with the principles of Chapter VII, consult with and make recommendations to Members concerning the initiation of commodity arrangements, the terms of any proposed commodity arrangements, or the modification or termination of arrangements already in force."

New Article 14

"The Organization may, in accordance with the principles of this Chapter, consult with and make recommendations to Members and other appropriate inter-governmental organizations relating to the encouragement of the industrial and general economic development of member countries."

* This addition is recommended subject to review of the Legal Drafting Committee, which is to determine whether this addition is required.
