On page 8, second paragraph, read:

He drew attention to the point that the last sentence of paragraph 4 of the Article, while requiring only the "substantial" elimination of internal restrictions between territories forming part of the union, would apparently require complete uniformity in the external tariff etc. of the union. He felt that here again it might be advisable to stipulate only for "substantial" uniformity; since there were cases in which territories forming, for practical purposes, parts of a customs union charged rather different revenue import duties, though their protective duties were identical.
