Corrigendum to document E/PC/T/C.V/30

Delete third line from the end on page 7 to the second line on page 8, inclusive, and insert the following:-

"Delegates would have a better appreciation of the United Kingdom proposals, as they stood and as conditioned by the suggestions of certain other Delegations, if they could be translated into such concrete terms. The afternoon's discussion had shown that certain criticisms of the arguments which had been advanced in their favour, e.g. the analogy of the weighted voting adopted for the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank, were not well founded."
