On Page 4: (should read)

"H. E. Mr. WUNSZ KING understood that tariff negotiations would be on a multilateral basis. As, however, only eighteen nations would be represented in Geneva, he was anxious to know whether the agreement reached in Geneva would come into force before, or rather after, the remaining thirty nations joined."

The sentence following should read:

"Mr. SPEKENHRINK (Netherlands) said that the point had been discussed .........." the phrase "Mr. WUNSZ KING's assumption was correct" being deleted.

Following the remarks made by Mr. SPEKENHRINK a paragraph should be inserted to read:

"H. E. Mr. WUNSZ KING thought the point involved was of far reaching importance. He would call the attention of his Government to it and he believed that the Chinese Government would in due time communicate its views on that particular point as well as on other points involved."
