SECOND SESSION OF THE PREPARATORY COMMITTEE OF THE UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON TRADE AND EMPLOYMENT

Corrigendum to the Verbatim Report of the third meeting in Executive Session.

The text of the second and third paragraphs of the remarks attributed to the Rt. Hon. Walter Nash, on pages 12 and 13 should read as follows:

"We could, however, I think, discuss the Cuban procedure, only as procedure, and then adjourn if it is so determined that the principles that they want discussed shall be discussed because it is quite possible the Delegations might have sent different persons here to discuss the whole of the principles of Chapters 1 - 5, so I submit that the thing we can do inside your ruling is to follow one of those two first courses or we may, if you so decide, discuss the Conference procedure as proposed by Cuba but not the principles, and then adjourn.

If then, Mr. Chairman, the alteration in method of our work as proposed by Cuba is approved, we should adjourn. If the Cuban method is not approved then we should discuss Articles 15 to 23 and 37 in accord with the decision at the previous meeting."
