Services:

The Czechoslovak Delegation adheres to the view expressed by several Delegations during the First Session and reiterated in the Drafting Committee Report, Page 34, General Comments, subparagraph (a), by the Delegations of Brazil, Chile, Cuba, India and South Africa, namely that services should fall under the purview of Chapter VI.

Compulsory registration of restrictive business practices.

The Czechoslovak Delegation also maintains its view concerning the compulsory registration of restrictive business practices, Drafting Committee Report, page 34, General Comments, subparagraph (b).

Complaints to the International Court of Justice.

The Czechoslovak Delegation is of the opinion that the possibility of taking a case where the Organization has finally decided about a complaint under Article 40 to the International Court of Justice should not be excluded from the Charter.
