In paragraph 10, the second sentence should read:

"The long-term framework for trade in agriculture should ensure elimination of distortions and restrictions originating in the industrialized countries within a specified time frame."