NEGOTIATIONS UNDER ARTICLE XXVIII

Canada

The Canadian Delegation considers it has a substantial interest in the modification of concessions not initially negotiated with Canada proposed by Cuba on the following items:

Tariff Item	Description
156-F	Transparent sheeting of cellulose or of any cellulose derivative, plain or colored, printed or not, out to size or in rolls.
291-A	Crackers: Ordinary, that is, those composed of flour, salt, and water, with or without shortening.
291-B	Fine crackers of all classes, including those in the manufacture of which there enter butter, eggs, sugar, essences or sweets of any kind, and those made with chocolate, cocoa butter, almonds, nuts or sweetmeats of any kind, provided that they do not contain more than 20% of chocolate or sweetmeats, including the immediate container.
302	Horn, whalebone, bone and ivory nut; and galalith, synthetic resins, celluloid, cellulose acetate and other cellulose plastics, including all the materials and articles which imitate those included in this Item and Item 301, in a solid state, with or without fillers:
302-A	Unmanufactured, or in plates or strips as raw material, and strips and plates laminated or not.
302-B	In buttons having a diameter of 2 centimeters or less.
302-C	In buttons having a diameter of more than 2 centimeters.
302-F	Other manufactures which imitate the material included in Letter D and in Item 301, including articles made of galalith, synthetic resins, cellulose acetate and other cellulose plastics, in a solid state, with or without fillers, when not constituting articles of personal adornment and knick-knacks.
