ARTICLE II

Paragraph 2

2. [Where a submission of the kind envisaged in paragraph 1 of this Article is made by a body or Agency of the United Nations having world-wide competence, the Standing Committee shall arrange forthwith for its immediate examination.]

Paragraph 4

4. Any Signatory may appoint a representative to a study group. Intergovernmental organizations and organs and agencies of the United Nations may send observers to any study group, and non-Signatory Governments having an interest in the commodity or commodities in question shall be invited by the Signatories to send observers. Observers may be invited by the study group to take part in its deliberations. Each study group shall select its own Chairman.

Paragraph 5

5. [For the purposes of this Article, the Assembly may deem a study group to have been convened by them if it is established by any body or Agency of the United Nations having special knowledge of the commodity or commodities in question and provided that the study group is authorized by the body or Agency in question to conform to the provisions of paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Article.]

ARTICLE III

Paragraph 1(e)

[(e) at the request of an intergovernmental organization having world-wide competence.]

Paragraph 6

6. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 of this Article, any Signatory may appoint representatives to a negotiating conference. [The Assembly may invite any government substantially interested in the production or consumption of or trade in that commodity, and any government, intergovernmental organization or body or agency of the United Nations which may appear to them to be interested in the measures in question.]

Paragraph 7

7. Subject to paragraph 8 of this Article the provisions of this Article shall be deemed to have been complied with if an arrangement resulting from a negotiating conference convened by another inter-governmental organization having world-wide competence and special knowledge of the commodity or commodities concerned is approved by the Assembly.

Paragraph 8

8. The provisions of paragraph 7 of this Article shall apply only after agreement has been reached between the Assembly and the inter-governmental organization concerned, that in convening negotiating conferences the organization will act consistently with the provisions of this Agreement applicable to the conduct of negotiating conferences.

ARTICLE V

Paragraph 1(b)

- (b) the appointment by the Assembly and by the CONTRACTING PARTIES of a non-voting representative to the council and the attendance of non-voting representatives of such intergovernmental organizations as the council may desire;

ARTICLE IX

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article XI 1(a) the Assembly may, at the invitation of existing study groups or of the councils of arrangements, perform in regard to them any of the functions which they shall perform in regard to study groups convened, or commodity arrangements concluded after the coming into force of this Agreement.

ARTICLE X

Paragraph 5

5. The Assembly shall publish either itself or jointly with other intergovernmental organizations an annual report reviewing, to the extent that they consider necessary consistently with paragraph 6 below, developments in international commodity trade, including the operation of arrangements and any other intergovernmental consultation and action in the primary commodity field. The report shall be transmitted to the CONTRACTING PARTIES for their observations.

Paragraph 6

6. /The Assembly may arrange for the exchange of information and for the avoidance of duplication of work with any other intergovernmental organization./

ARTICLE XI

Paragraph 1(a)

/(a) to existing study groups or to the operation or renewal of existing commodity arrangements conforming to the principles approved by the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations in its resolution of 28 March 1947:/
