"APPENDIX I (pages 127-130)

Paragraph 13: Change to read:

When possible, the article sold to the United States is compared to identical or similar articles sold in the home market. If neither identical nor similar articles are sold in the home market, or if the quantity sold in the home market is so small as to form an inadequate basis for comparison, then comparison is made with identical or similar articles sold for exportation to countries other than the United States. In making comparison with a similar article, allowances are made for any differences in costs of manufacture or production.

Paragraph 15:

Change '1958' in the fourth sentence of paragraph 15 to '1959' and change 'ten' to 'twelve'. Add the following new sentence:

'One case was still under consideration by the Commission as of 31 December 1959.'

Paragraph 16:

Change '1958' to '1959' and change '251' to '289'.

"Revised regulations pertaining to anti-dumping are in the process of preparation but have not yet been issued in final form."
