This is with reference to my letter of May 15, 1984, and to confirm my earlier oral notification, as well as the notification to you by the Government of Peru, that the United States on June 14, 1984, established a limit for cotton twill fabric (category 317 part) pursuant to Article 3.5(i) of the arrangement for the 12-month period beginning on April 10, 1984, and ending on April 9, 1985. The level established is 8,173,427 square yards.

As you know the United States and Peru have had several rounds of consultations with respect to this category. These consultations are continuing. I shall inform you of the results as soon as they are available.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Shepherd
Minister-Counselor
