Letter to Chairman, TSB from Permanent Mission of El Salvador

Geneva, 25 July 1985

Dear Mr. Chairman,

In reply to your note TS/140-1 in which you request information concerning quantitative restrictions, bilateral agreements, and any other measures taken with restrictive effects under the provisions of the MFA, I have the honour to inform you that at present our government does not maintain any type of restrictive measure. All such measures previously in effect for the textile sector were suspended as of 1 September 1983.

I take this opportunity to renew to you the expressions of my most distinguished consideration.
