Dear Ambassador Raffaelli:

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 4 of the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles, I am informing the Textiles Surveillance Body of the amendment of several bilateral textile agreements between the United States of America and other governments participating in the MFA. Each of these amendments involves modifications to take account of changes involving implementation by the United States of the harmonized commodity code (Harmonized System). The governments involved are: China, Macao, Mexico, Peru, Romania, Singapore and Yugoslavia. Copies of the notes giving effect to these amendments are attached.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Shepherd
Minister Counsellor

UNITED STATES AND CHINA AMEND BILATERAL TEXTILE AGREEMENT

The United States and The People's Republic of China exchanged letters dated November 7, 1988 and January 24, 1989 to amend their bilateral textile agreement. Text of the letters follow:

UNITED STATES NOTE

Beijing

November 7, 1988

Mr. Li Guodong
Deputy Director
Foreign Trade Administration
Ministry of Foreign Economic
Relations and Trade
2 Dong Chang An Street
Beijing

Dear Mr. Li:

I have the honor to refer to the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles, with Annexes, done at Geneva on December 20, 1973 and extended by Protocols adopted respectively on December 14, 1977, December 22, 1981 and July 31, 1986, at Geneva (the Arrangement) and to the Agreement on Trade in Cotton, Wool, Man-made Fiber, Vegetable Fiber other than Cotton, and Silk-blend Textiles and Textile Products between the Government of the People's Republic of China and the Government of the United States of America dated February 2, 1988 (the Agreement), as amended. I further refer to consultations held in Haikou, China May 5-6, 1988 and in Washington July 26-29, 1988 concerning the adoption of the harmonized commodity code by the Government of the United States of America and its effect on the Agreement.

The Government of the United States of America will implement the Harmonized Commodity Code (Harmonized System) on January 1, 1989. In order to facilitate successful implementation of the Harmonized System in the absence of an agreed Annex B2 of the Agreement, I have the honor to propose that the attached Annex B2 be implemented under the terms of the Agreement pending further consultations. Such consultations to take place as soon after January 1, 1989 as is mutually acceptable to both governments.

Further, I would like to describe how the conversion to the Harmonized System will affect the treatment of textiles and textile products exported from the People's Republic of China to the United States on or after January 1, 1989.

I. All textile shipments from China subject to U.S. import quotas which are exported in 1988 and which arrive in the United States on or after January 1, 1989, will be charged to the appropriate category based on the 1988 Textile Category System. All quota charges for shipments exported on or after January 1, 1989 will be made according to the Harmonized System.

II. The Agreement provides for calendar-year "Agreement Years" that end on December 31. As such, all 1988 overshipments will be charged to the applicable 1989 Harmonized System Category.

III. With regard to the visa system covering exports of textile products from China to the United States, all goods subject to the Visa Arrangement exported on or after January 1, 1989 must be covered by a visa showing the correct Harmonized System category number and correct quantity. In addition, please note that under the Harmonized System measurements must be in metric units rather than in imperial units as provided for in Annex A2 of the Agreement. The Government of the United States will convert units of measure as follows:

--0.45359237 kilograms per pound.

--0.83612736 square meters per square yard.

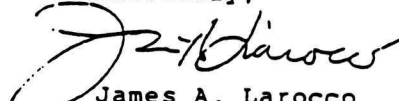

--0.09290304 square meters per square foot.

IV. All provisions of the Agreement regarding the Harmonized System will take effect January 1, 1989.

If the foregoing proposal regarding Annex B2 is acceptable to the Government of the People's Republic of China, then this letter and a letter of confirmation on behalf of the Government of the People's Republic of China shall constitute an Administrative Arrangement under the Agreement.

If you or a member of your staff have any further questions about the above materials, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

James A. Larocco
Economic Counselor

PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Mr. James A. Larocco
Economic Counselor
Embassy of the
United States of America
Beijing

January 24, 1989

Dear Mr. Larocco,

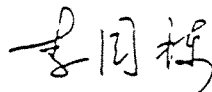

I have the honor to refer to your letter of November 7, 1988 concerning the adoption of the Harmonized Commodity Code by the Government of the United States of America and its effect on the Agreement on Trade in Cotton, Wool, Man-made Fiber, Vegetable Fiber other than Cotton, and Silk-Blend Textiles and Textile Products between the Government of the People's Republic of China and the Government of the United States of America dated February 2, 1988, as amended (the Agreement).

I further have the honor to refer to paragraph 17 of the Agreement relating to the adoption of the Harmonized Commodity Code by the United States which ensures that conversion to the U.S. Harmonized System is to be trade neutral and does not diminish overall trade with the People's Republic of China.

I have the honor to inform you that the proposals set forth in your letter are acceptable to the Government of the People's Republic of China and to confirm that your letter and this letter shall constitute an administrative arrangement under the Agreement. I further wish to inform you that pursuant to paragraph 17 of the Agreement, the Government of the People's Republic of China may request consultations and amendments to Annex B2 in the event

U.S. implementation of the Harmonized System, through unforeseen classification or otherwise, results in a diminution of overall trade from the People's Republic of China.

Sincerely,

Li Guodong

UNITED STATES AND CHINA AMEND BILATERAL TEXTILE AGREEMENT

The United States and China exchanged notes dated April 28, 1989 and May 1, 1989 to amend their bilateral textile agreement. Text of the notes follow:

UNITED STATES NOTE

April 28, 1989

28 APR 1989

Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to the Arrangement regarding International Trade in Textiles, done at Geneva on December 20, 1973, as extended by the Protocol of July 31, 1986 (the Arrangement), and to the Agreement on Trade in Cotton, Wool, Man-Made Fiber, Vegetable Fiber other than Cotton, and Silk-Blend Textiles and Textile Products between the Governments of the People's Republic of China and of the United States of America dated February 2, 1988 (the Agreement), as amended. I further refer to consultations held in Washington February 21-24, 1989 concerning effects on the Agreement caused by the adoption of the Harmonized Commodity Code nomenclature by the United States.

As a result of these consultations, I have the honor to propose the following amendments to the Agreement:

I. Due to the new classification guidelines under the Harmonized Commodity Code, categories 447 and 448 will be increased by 72 dozen and 473 dozen, respectively, to account for migration of trade. Annex B2, Group I limits shall be amended as follows:

Cat.	Unit of Measure	1989 Limit	1990 Limit	1991 Limit
447	doz	73,544	74,279	75,022
448	doz	20,673	20,880	21,089

II. Due to the new classification guidelines under the Harmonized Commodity Code, categories 647 and 648 will be increased by 2,203 dozen and 58 dozen, respectively, to account for migration of trade. In addition to these increases, the limit for category 648 shall be decreased by 150,000 dozen and the limit for category 647 shall be increased by 150,000 dozen to account for migration of trade. The transfer of 150,000 dozen will be considered permanent unless the Government of the People's Republic of China notifies the Government of the United States of America prior to 1990 that it wishes to have all or part of the 150,000 dozen revert. In the absence of such a request, the Annex B2, Group I limits shall be amended as follows:

Cat.	Unit of Measure	1989 Limit	1990 Limit	1991 Limit
647	doz	1,264,919	1,315,516	1,368,137
648	doz	921,367	953,615	986,992

The Government of the United States reaffirms its willingness to hold consultations with the People's Republic of China on any question arising in the implementation of the Agreement as provided for in paragraph 19.

If the foregoing conforms with the understanding of the Government of the People's Republic of China, this note and a note of acceptance on the part of the Government of the People's Republic of China shall constitute an amendment to the Agreement.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Secretary of State:

THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA NOTE

May 1, 1989

Dear Mr. McConville:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note dated April 28, 1989 relating to the proposed amendment to the Textile Agreement between our two countries.

I have the honor to confirm on behalf of the Government of the People's Republic of China that the proposed amendment conforms with the understanding of my Government and agree that your note and this note shall constitute an amendment to the agreement between our two countries.

Accept the renewed assurance of my highest consideration.

For the Ambassador of the
People's Republic of China
