Ambassador Marcelo Raffaelli
Chairman
Textiles Surveillance Body
General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade
154 rue de Lausanne
1211 Genève
SUISSE

Dear Ambassador Raffaelli:

Pursuant to Article 4 of the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles (MFA), done at Geneva, December 20, 1973, and to its 1986, 1991 and 1992 Protocols of Extension and Maintenance in Force, I have the honour to provide documentation relative to the extension and modification of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Governments of Canada and the Dominican Republic concerning the export of men's and boys' fine suits, jackets and blazers from the Dominican Republic to Canada. The relevant exchange of diplomatic notes is attached.

The term of validity of the MOU has, via these instruments, been extended through the end of this year and the restraint categories for the MOU have been modified to the new HS based categorization system which is now characteristic of all of Canada's bilateral textiles and clothing restraint agreements and about which the TSB had a discussion at its most recent meeting.

Yours sincerely,

John F. Donaghy
Counsellor

DIPLOMATIC NOTE FROM THE CANADIAN EMBASSY. SANTO DOMINGO

2 NOVEMBER 1992

"...and has the honour to refer to the Memorandum of Understanding between the Government of Canada and the Government of the Dominican Republic relating to the export from the Dominican Republic of certain textiles and textiles products for import into Canada (MOU).

In light of the continued delay in the completion of the Uruguay Round of Multilateral Trade Negotiations, it is clear that the MTN results on textiles and clothing will not be implemented on January 1, 1993, as was expected last year when the MOU was extended until December 31, 1992. To date, the Textiles Committee of the GATT has not taken a decision on the extension of the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles (MFA) beyond its expiry date of 31 December, 1992. It is likely that a decision in this respect will not be made until much later in 1992.

Under these circumstances, there is already considerable uncertainty among producers, exporters and importers in Canada and in the Dominican Republic with respect to the rules which will govern our bilateral trade in clothing in 1993. Orders have already been placed for delivery in 1993. Manufacturers in Canada and in the Dominican Republic will soon have to purchase products to meet their 1993 delivery commitments. Canadian importers also have committed themselves to meet increasingly stringent deadlines for delivery to their Canadian customers. In the absence of the extension of the MOU, Canadian authorities are not in a position at this time to counsel Canadian importers on whether the current import regime would continue into 1993.

Canadian authorities remain committed to maintaining an effective import control policy for the textile and clothing industries in order to moderate growth in low-cost imports and to provide the Canadian industry with a climate that is conducive to an orderly adjustment process. The current bilateral textile agreement between the Dominican Republic and Canada has served to ensure secure terms of access for exports of fine suits from the Dominican Republic.

The Canadian Authorities propose that the MOU be extended until 31 December, 1993, or if the authorities of the Dominican Republic are agreeable, to 31 December, 1994. This extension would apply to all terms and conditions of the MOU, including growth rate and flexibility provisions. It would also be without prejudice to any changes that may be required to be implemented as a result of a successful conclusion of the Uruguay Round. Therefore, in the event that the MTN results are implemented in 1994, the second year of this extension would be superseded by the restraint structure contained in the MTN agreement.

If the Authorities of the Dominican Republic are in agreement with the proposed extension of the MOU, the Canadian Authorities propose further that the attached documents entitled "Annex I - Restraint Levels - Dominican Republic - Group I", "Annex II - Preamble - Dominican Republic", and "Annex II - Clothing Categories - Dominican Republic", which represent the conversion of the structure of restraints on imports of clothing into Canada from the Dominican Republic to one based on the Harmonized System, replace the Annexes I and II appended to the MOU, effective January 1, 1993.

The Canadian Authorities would appreciate an early response to these proposals, preferably by November 15, 1992. In the event that the Authorities of the Dominican Republic are in agreement with these proposals, the Canadian Authorities would propose that this Note, along with the reply from the Authorities of the Dominican Republic, constitute an Agreement extending the MOU based on the HS until the date on which we mutually agree..."
