Spanish Text of the Havana Charter

Note from the Executive Secretary

In view of the fact that the Secretariat has been notified that further comments are to be expected upon the Spanish text of the Havana Charter, the date for deposit of this text with the Secretary-General of the United Nations has been postponed from 11 April. Account will be taken of any comments received by noon on 30 April. All that are received by then will be incorporated in the text and communicated to all Governments. The text itself will be deposited on 31 May with the Secretary-General of the United Nations unless objections are registered in the interval.

Note: Comments should be sent to Mr. Grant Tolley, ICITO Liaison Officer, United Nations Headquarters, Lake Success.
