TRADE ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN INDIA,
THE ARAB REPUBLIC OF EGYPT AND YUGOSLAVIA

Decision of 22 March 1973¹

Considering that the CONTRACTING PARTIES, by the Decision of 14 November 1968², agreed that the Governments of India, the Arab Republic of Egypt and Yugoslavia (hereinafter referred to as the "participating States") may implement, subject to specified conditions and procedures, the Trade Expansion and Economic Co-operation Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement"), dated 23 December 1967, and effective 1 April 1968;

Considering further that the CONTRACTING PARTIES, by the Decision of 20 February 1970³, agreed that the participating States may continue, subject to the conditions and procedures set forth in paragraph 1 of that Decision, to implement the Agreement as amended by a Protocol amending the Agreement and constituting an integral part thereof (hereinafter referred to as the "Protocol"), dated 16 July 1969;

Considering further that the aforesaid Decision of 20 February 1970 was intended to expire no later than 31 March 1973;

Noting that the participating States have notified the CONTRACTING PARTIES of their agreement to extend the Agreement, as amended by the Protocol, until 31 March 1978 and have requested⁴ that the Decision of 20 February 1970 be extended to 31 March 1978;

Desirous of according contracting parties an opportunity to consult with the participating States in accordance with paragraph 1(b) of the Decision and to carry out the review of the Decision in accordance with paragraph 1(c);

The CONTRACTING PARTIES decide to extend the validity of the Decision of 20 February 1970 subject to the relevant terms and conditions specified therein, until the end of the twenty-ninth session of the CONTRACTING PARTIES.
