QUESTIONS FROM HONG KONG ON THE LEGISLATION OF AUSTRALIA

(ADP/1/Add.18/Rev.1/Suppl.7)

The following communication, dated 22 October 1993, has been received from the Permanent Mission of Hong Kong.

Customs Legislation (Anti-Dumping Amendments) Act 1992

Clause 5 (Non-injurious price)

- Question 1: How is the level of "non-injurious price" derived and whether it is subject to regular reviews?
- Question 2: It is noted from the GATT document SCM/W/297 that "non-injurious prices are not considered in calculating the level of security during the period of provisional measures". What is the rationale behind this?

Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Amendment Act (No. 2) 1992

Clause 4 (Dumping Duties)

- Question 1: According to the new subsection 8(4) of the Principal Act, the interim dumping duty is an amount equal to the difference between the ascertained export price and the ascertained normal value. How are the ascertained export price and the ascertained normal price derived?
- Question 2: What is the difference between the "interim dumping duty" and the provisional measures as provided by the Anti-Dumping Code?
- Question 3: What is the relationship between the "interim dumping duty" and "dumping duty"?
