THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO THE EUROPEAN OFFICE OF THE UNITED NATIONS GENEVA

January 2, 1979

The Honorable
Ambassador Paul Wurth
Chairman, Textiles Surveillance Body
Centre William Rappard
154, rue de Lausanne
CH-1211 Geneva 21

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This is to inform you that paragraph 2 of page 2 of the short reasoned statement accompanying the United States notification of a recent amendment to the United States-Romania cotton textile bilateral agreement (circulated to the TSB as TEX.SB/351 of December 7, 1978) is in error in two points.

The overshipments mentioned in paragraph 2 of page 2 of the reasoned statement were, primarily, the result of classification errors between cotton apparel falling within categories 334 (other coats mens and boys) and category 338 (knit shirts mens and boys). Romania had been shipping zippered sweatshirts as being in category 338 which has a conversion factor of 7.2 syds. equiv. per dozen whereas this item is properly classified in category 334 which has a conversion factor of 41.3 syds. equivilent per dozen. This discrepancy resulted in substantial overshipments in category 334 and, ultimately, to an embargo on this category.

In consultations leading to the subject amendment, the parties agreed to reduce the designated consultative level for category 338 by 150,000 dozen for the first agreement year and by 200,000 dozen for each of the second, third, fourth and fifth agreement years.

The equivalent yardage (measured by the category 334 conversion factor) thus taken from category 338 was transferred to the designated consultation level for category 334. Converted to yardage (at 41.3 syds. equiv.) the transfer increased the designated consultation level of category 334 for the first agreement year by 6,195,000 syds. equiv. which, when added to the previously existing level of 1,500,000, becomes 7,695,000 syds. equiv.

In order to avoid penalizing Romania excessively in terms of charges to the apparel group limit, it was agreed that category 334 would be set up as an independent category outside the apparel group and that a compensating downward modification of the group limit would be effected.

Lastly, the reasoned statement asserts that "in the original agreement categories 334 and 338 were subject to the general cotton apparel consultation level of 700,000 syds. equiv." This is in error. Category 334 was subject to a designated consultative level of 1,500,000 syds. equiv. and category 338 subject to a designated consultation level of 3,240,000 syds. equiv.

I would appreciate the circulation of this letter as an addendum to TEX.SB/351.

Sincerely,

Harry M. Phelan, Jr.

Minister Counselor
